On behalf of the organizing committee members, I would like to welcome you to the Europe-Korea Conference on Science and Technology 2019 (EKC 2019), which will be held in Vienna, Austria from 15th to 19th July, 2019.

EKC 2019 is hosted by Korean Scientists and Engineers Association in Austria (KOSEAA) together with the Korean Federation of Science and Technology Societies (KOFST) and eight other Korean Scientists and Engineers Associations in Europe: Germany (VeKNI), the UK (KSEAUk), France (ASCoF), Netherland (KOSEANL), Switzerland (KSEAS), Finland (KOSES), Scandinavia (KSSEA), and Belgium (KOSEABe).

The theme of EKC 2019 is “Science, Technology and Humanity: Advancement and Sustainability”. Human civilization is confronting huge anthropogenic problems such as environmental destruction, climate change and social crisis. To tackle those issues, EKC 2019 will be a meeting place of science, technology, and humanity to acquire sustainability while they can continue advancing. Especially, humanities division is newly launched in EKC 2019 to discuss the role of social science in collaboration with science and technology.

The conference includes multilateral programs: i) science and technology discussions, ii) policy and business sessions, iii) industrial forums, and iv) networking programs. Participants from industry, government policy makers, as well as academic scholars and researchers will present and discuss related scientific issues. EKC 2019 especially promotes participation of young students to foster the next generation scientists.

We look forward to your participation in EKC 2019 in Vienna!

Sincerely yours,

Jong Mun PARK, Ph.D

Chair of the EKC 2019

President of Korean Scientists and Engineers Association in Austria
